KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Leaving a Safety Legacy

Wylie Davidson

Have a refreshing look at what many companies struggle with when attempting to create an effective safety culture: Compliance and Engagement. By challenging the status quo and the "what's in it for me" mentality, this program is designed to get attendees to put a stronger value on what matters most; their own personal safety and the safety of others around them, both on the job and at home.

Confessions of a Traveling Zombie

Tim Page-Bottorff

Zombies are everywhere thanks to fatigue, distraction, and preoccupation. Tim will discuss the lessons he has learned on the dozens of trips he makes each year. He will also provide tools that increase human performance and help prevent people from working, walking or driving in zombie mode.
